PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release: Promotion of Officer Jeff Salstrom to Patrol Sergeant

Date: 09/05/2008

As a result of the retirement of Sergeant Dallas Hensley at the end of July, a patrol sergeant position opened within the Hoquiam Police Department for the first time in over eleven years. Hoquiam Civil Service conducted promotional testing and established a sergeant eligibility test from within the department's ranks.

I am proud to announce that Canine Officer Jeff Salstrom was promoted last week to the position of patrol sergeant with the Hoquiam Police Department. Sergeant Salstrom started with the department on May 14, 2001 and was formerly a police officer and deputy sheriff for several years. Sergeant Salstrom is a native of Aberdeen and is married with two children.

Sergeant Salstrom will continue to work with his assigned canine partner "Enno". Although Enno may not directly benefit from the new stripes on Sergeant Salstrom's sleeve, we are sure that Enno will continue to enjoy tracking suspects and sniffing out drugs.
